

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

She Came to Glory.
Nay, loose thy hand and let me go!
God's glories pierce and lighten
I want my house, my fire, my bread,
My sheets with wash and whiten.

I liked the dusty roads of earth,
The brambles and the roaming;
I liked the flowers that used to fade
The small lamp in the gloaming.

The fields of God they blind my eyes,
Dread is this heavenly tillage;
I want the sweet, lost homeliness
Of the dooryards of our village.

There are the accustomed common things,
The cups we drank together;
The old shoes that he laced for me,
The cape for rainy weather?

Dear were our stumbling, human ways,
His words' impetuous flurry,
His tossed hair, the kind, anxious brow,
The step's too eager hurry.

O, tall archangel with such wings,
Your beauty is too burning!
Give me once more my threadbare dress
And the sound of his feet returning.

—Florence Wilkinson.

Estes—Smith.

A quiet marriage took place yesterday evening at seven o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Travers, No. 602 West Franklin Street, when Miss Sadie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, became the wife of Mr. Elliott Estes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Estes, of Spartanburg, S. C. The Rev. Dr. William E. Evans, of Monumental Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.

Decorations were in green and white, palms and cut flowers being bunched in every available space.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Misses Beesie and Edith Smith; who wore costumes of white lace and decorated with carnations. Mr. Estes was attended by his brother as best man.

The bride's gown was of white silk with trimmings of point lace. Her tulle veil was caught with sprays of lilacs of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of the same flowers.

After an extended wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Estes will make their home in Spartanburg, S. C.

Miss Gilmore Present.

Miss Gilmore, of this city, was among the dancers at a most enjoyable German given at the Princess Anne Hotel, Virginia Beach, Saturday evening. The German was led by Mr. Cluett, of Young and Miss Hawkins, of Birmingham, Ala. Among those dancing were Misses Shepherd and Wymer, of Cumberland, Md.; Miss Marie Woodard, of Suffolk; Miss Grace Morris, of City Point, Va.; Miss Grace Morris, of Danville; Miss George, of Danville; Misses Mary and Elizabeth Townsend, of Norfolk; Dr. Graves, of Richmond; Messrs. John B. Taylor, James Bradley, James Hume, William Sterling, Joseph Fivesash, Charles Tighe, Richard Wardrop, Walter Irvine, Charles McIntosh, Richard Cooke and Mr. Leo.

Marriage Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Green, of Dallas, Texas, have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Bessie, to Lieutenant Clifford Jones, United States Army. The marriage will take place in August, and after the 28th of that month Lieutenant Jones and his bride will be at Fort Monroe, where the Lieutenant is attached to the artillery corps.

Chapter Meets.

A very attractive meeting of the Albemarle Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. W. Oliver, in Charlottesville.

Reports from various committees showed the chapter to be flourishing; that from Mrs. Venable, chairman of the committee appointed to raise funds for the Albemarle Confederate Monument, being especially encouraging. The chapter accepted an offer, made by the veterans of Charlottesville, to give a Confederate concert in recognition of the service extended the chapter by the chapter.

A proposition from Dr. Cyril Dodswell, organist of Christ Church, inviting the chapter to co-operate with him in giving a popular opera in the fall, was discussed by the ladies with much interest, though no definite decision was reached.

Richmonders at Buckroe.

A charming bevy of Richmond girls have been the centre of attraction at Buckroe Beach for the past two weeks. Many pleasantly informal affairs have been given in their honor, among the most charming of which were the sailing party in honor of Miss Rose Smith, on last Monday, and the beach party given Tuesday evening by Miss Mary Roper, of Petersburg.

Two Richmond girls, who attracted much attention during their stay were Misses Madge Bowle and Rosa Smith, both of whom returned to the city Tuesday, together with Dr. and Mrs. W. H. L. Smith, and Miss Nannie Smith, after a delightful visit at Cape View Cottage.

The cottage of Mrs. J. C. Outten, of this city, is another centre of interest, and there Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Latham are delighted for the season.

Regret has been expressed at the departure for Richmond of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Temple Burnley, who proved themselves most companionable.

Motor Boat Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Thomas, of Richmond, who are spending the summer at Buckroe Beach Hotel, conducted some of their friends Monday afternoon with a motor boat party on Hampton Roads, visiting Old Point, The Rip Raps, Ocean View, Pine Beach and Hampton.

The guests, who made the trip delightful, were Miss Nannie Walker, of Rocky Mount, N. C.; Miss Carrie Stoddard, of Norfolk; Miss Ellyson, of Danville; Miss Charlie Westbrook, of Durham, N. C.; Miss Fay Westbrook, of Newport News; Misses Gladys and Sadie Neale and Mrs. D. P. Edwards, of Richmond; Messrs. Jewell Neale, John and George Brothers and Adrian Thomas, of Richmond, and Mr. Westbrook, of Newport News, and Master Erwin Thomas, of Richmond.

OFF IN THE STILLY NIGHT.

By THOMAS MOORE.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

Off, in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Fond memory brings the light
Of other days around me;
The smiles, the tears,
Of boyhood's years,
The words of love then spoken;
The eyes that shone,
Now dimm'd and gone,
The cheerful hearts now broken!

Thus, in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

When I remember all
The friends, so link'd together,
I've seen around me fall,
Like leaves in wintry weather,
I feel like one
Who treads alone
Some banquet-hall deserted,
Whose lights are fled,
Whose garlands dead,
And all but he departed!

Thus, in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad memory brings the light
Of other days around me.
